

JUNE 19th

KNOCK THE BLUES OUT OF HUNGER 2010

Benefitting United Food Bank www.unitedfoodbank.org, Knock the Blues Out of Hunger 2010 is an all day event. Starting at noon in the Show Low City Park (on the corner of Highway 60 and 260), this year's event is FREE with donations of nonperishable food items and cash being accepted as admission. With food and activities for the entire family, we look forward to you joining us for a beautiful day in the White Mountains. All it takes to knock the blues away is hope, community, and the note of a song.

Kicking us off is OLD BONES BLUES BAND. Comprised of seasoned musicians from Snowflake, their old school blues show is always a hit. They often play benefits, promoting community spirit and that old school adage of helping neighbors help each other – performing 12 until 2 PM.

Common Ground Blues from Phoenix has been a premier valley blues act for decades. Their modern blues style mixed with classic vibe makes their show a hit with all ages. A five piece band, Common Ground Blues has been involved in playing charity events and is honored to play at KTBH 2010 performing from 2:30 until 4:30 PM.

TOBIE MILFORD www.tobiemilford.com is among the up and coming indie artists of today. His debut EP Alyosha was honored as one of the “hot new indie artists” on Amazon in February. Blending looped violin and vocals, he is part of the Black River Bandit's Symphonic Revolution with influences diverse as Radiohead and Sufjan Stevens. He is playing this summer throughout the southwest including the Underground Music Showcase in Denver. Tobie is honored to be a part of KTBH 2010 performing 5 until 6 PM.

TONY LUCCA www.tonylucca.com has been active on the Los Angeles music scene for years, and has been awarded the L.A. Music Award for Best Male Singer/Songwriter. Having written and produced 5 albums and 3 EP's, his music has been featured in such films as Friday Night Lights and Open Range. He has toured extensively, playing with artists Jason Mraz, Curtis Peoples, Joss Stone, and Keaton Simons. Tony performs at 6:30 PM.

Keaton Simons www.keatonsimons.com is one of those rare artists that pose a triple threat, musicians that seize the spotlight through their singing, songwriting and instrumental prowess. That hallowed breed of musician has become increasingly rare in popular music. Having received a degree in Ethnomusicology, his musical knowledge is extensive. He has written music for or shared stages with the Black Eyed Peas, Gnarls Barkley, Coldplay, Tony Lucca, and Tyrone Wells. His music has been featured on television's American Dreams, Malcolm in the Middle, NCIS and he performed on The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson. Keaton is pleased to be a part of the KTBH 2010 event for his second year performing at 7:30 PM.

Thanks again to Bob Veltre, Larry Filson, and Mike Ferlisi – the Back Up Band Extraordinaire!
